Adoptable Dog Parade

A special showcase of just a few of the many great dogs needing to find their "forever home." Thanks to some of our sponsors, these wonderful dogs will be spiffed up and ready to strut their stuff—and maybe catch the eye of someone at the show looking to make the perfect addition to their family.

Rescue Showcase

Did you know that 25% of dogs in shelters are purebreds? Interested in finding out more about a particular breed? Ever thought about the benefits of adopting a senior dog or cat (...like no houstraining!)? Want to avoid buying from a puppy-mill or back-yard breeder, but aren't sure what to look for? The Rescue Showcase is a special daily feature of several rescue organizations (and their animals) there to answer questions and share important information about animals.
